WASHINGTON, April 29.—Thirty-the front lines of the war.

The women are now in the city to ask the president to grant them a hearing to their husbands and children.

Babe Ruth Has Home Run Rival; Williams Sets a Modern Record

WILLIAMS IN ACTION. INSET (C) WILLIAMS, (R) RUTH.

By BILLY EVANS
While Babe Ruth, home-run king, is sitting in the grandstand as a mere spectator, Kenneth Williams of the St. Louis Browns is battering the sporting spotlight with a record-breaking performance.

Williams' feat of hitting three home runs in one game on Saturday, April 29, sets a modern baseball record.

Ruth's last home-run performance in a single game is two home runs.

It has been 25 years since any player made three home runs in one game. The feat was set by Babe Ruth in 1897.

Only 11 players in the history of baseball have made three home runs in one game. Williams is the only player to do so since 1897.

In four games Williams has hit six home runs. Babe Ruth is the only other player to hit more than one home run in a game.

During the season of 1922 Milwaukee's first home-run performance in a single game is two
home runs.
